Through audio visual presentations, Mr. Subodh Panchal (MD Kastwel Foundries, Ahmedabad) spoke about the Castings & Foundries Expo and how such a trade show would contribute to the growth of the Indian Foundry industry particularly in the present global economic scenario when the world looks to India for economic growth. The Indian Foundry industry is the 2nd largest in the world in terms of output. The trade show is a step towards creating an international bazaar of Indian Castings & Foundries. To achieve this, selected foreign buyers were to be specially sponsored to attend the Buyer-Seller Meet. Also, sourcing teams from large national buyers of castings like the Railways, manufacturers of Automobiles, Tractors and Powertrain are going to be specially invited to join the Buyer-Seller Meet. While exhibitors of the trade show will be given complimentary participation in these Buyer-Seller Meet, even non-exhibitors will be allowed to participate upon payment of a fee. The presentation particularly highlighted the significant synergies created between the twin trade shows – the 16th ENGIMACH and CASTINGS & FOUNDRIES EXPO INDIA 2023. Based on the track record of the last 15 editions over the last 26 years, the 16th ENGIMACH was likely to feature 700+ Exhibitors of engineering machinery and products and over 1 lakh visitors from various industrial sectors in manufacturing! This translated into 500+ buyers of castings as exhibitors in ENGIMACH at the same venue! This is a ready platform to launch the CASTINGS & FOUNDRIES EXPO INDIA 2023! Mr Amit Mistry (Head Projects, K&D) then made an audio-visual presentation of the 16th ENGIMACH which already has a large participation from Rajkot.
